INTERNATIONAL APPEAL

100 SCIENTISTS WARN COP15 ON THE
DANGERS OF GENETIC BIOTECHNOLOGIES
FOR POLLINATORS AND BIODIVERSITY

Friday 9th December - 12 to 12:30pm

MEDIA CENTER COP15 MONTREAL - ROOM 220D

ONLINE BROADCASTING

More than 100 scientists, experts and organisations call upon the world leaders at COP15 to oppose the deployment in nature of genetic biotechnologies and demand a strict application of the precautionary principle.

The NGO POLLINIS also calls for an international moratorium on these dangerous biotechnologies that could precipitate pollinators' ongoing decline.
