

Media advisory

Global youth to gather with United Nations Secretary-General and other key dignitaries at Youth Summit ahead of the UN Biodiversity Conference, COP 15

What: A Youth Summit to bring together 300 youth from around the world and key dignitaries, including United Nations Secretary-General Antonio Guterres and representatives of the Governments of Canada, China, and Quebec, driving momentum for transformative change at COP 15

Date: 6 December 2022

Place: Grand Quay of the Port of Montreal, 200 de la Commune St W, Montreal, Quebec H2Y 4B2

More info:

- Press release on Youth Summit: <https://www.gybn.org/yspress-release>
- Press release on COP-15: To add link

Media contact: Michelle Hahn-Baker, hahn-baker.michelle@mail.mcgill.ca

Members of the media wanting to interview young people as part of the Youth Summit are invited to reach out. Coordinators of the Global Youth Biodiversity Network and other youth delegates with specialized knowledge are available for interviews and guest appearances.

Global youth to gather with United Nations Secretary-General and other key dignitaries at Youth Summit ahead of the UN Biodiversity Conference, COP 15