Ms Alexandra Albin

Head of division,
Equity & Funds Sub-Saharan Africa & Latin America,
KfW

Alexandra joined KfW more than 20 years ago and is the Head of Division for Sub-Saharan Africa and Latin America in KfW's equity and regional funds department. In that capacity she is responsible for overseeing the structuring of a wide variety of agrifinance and biodiversity funds as well as conducting direct investments into agri-focused social enterprises in SSA. In addition, Alexandra serves as a member of the Board of Directors of the Fairtrade Access Fund that is addressing the financial needs of smallholder farmers by providing better access to finance and to sustainable markets.

She has over 20 years experience in development cooperation with a specific expertise on agri-finance and the structuring of debt and equity funds. Alexandra holds a Master's degree in Economics from the Humboldt-University Berlin.
