Roundtable 3

Dr. Maurizio Farhan Ferrari

Forest Peoples Programme

Maurizio Farhan Ferrari has been researching and supporting action on environment, human rights and sustainable development at local, national and global level since the late 1980s. He has been with the Forest Peoples Programme since 1997, where he is currently a senior policy adviser on environmental governance. Following up on his doctorate on the role of indigenous peoples and local communities in the implementation of the CBD in Southeast Asia, since 2005 he has focused his activities on supporting IPLCs in engaging in and in implementing the Convention at local, national and global level, including on indicators. In recent years, he has been co-lead author of the Local Biodiversity Outlooks publications.
